Dear friends,

I ran for City Council in District 4 because I saw the Los Angeles that I moved to more than 20 years ago — a more welcoming, affordable city — slipping away.

I ran because I felt an overwhelming urgency to fight for a more sustainable, affordable, and equitable Los Angeles, where my four children — and all Angelenos — could thrive.

That's why I'm throwing my support behind Nithya Raman.

A lot has changed since the primary.

This city needed better leadership before the pandemic, but we're desperate for it now. The disastrous effect of COVID-19 on employment, on homelessness, and on our commitment to fund transit and other essential services, requires a leader who has the vision and the backbone to help guide us into a stable, equitable future for all Angelenos.

I believe Nithya is that leader.

She's put forward comprehensive, well-researched plans to tackle just about every crisis LA is facing. She's inspired thousands of volunteers to power her campaign.

And here's something else that's important to me: Nithya's a mom. I know firsthand how difficult it can be, running a campaign while managing your family. The fact that Nithya has run a competitive race while raising young kids tells me she'll be able to manage whatever chaos comes her way at City Hall.

Let's build the LA we deserve together.

I hope you'll join me in voting for Nithya by November 3rd.

Thank you,

Sarah Kate Levy
